1.1.43
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. Make new friends but keep the old, the new ones are silver, the old ones are gold. Sounds like something I would say Ted. But Ted, those relationships are worth more than gold. For My kingdom is built on relationship, relationship, relationships, not money, not gold, or power of man, but Ted, relationship, relationship, relationship.

2. Ted, that's why relationship/friendship is fought so hard by the kingdom of darkness. The power of two, of four, of hundreds, and thousands. Ted, the power of one with one other person, in relationship in friendship, in concert, in purity, is powerful, so powerful, so powerful.

3. Few Ted, few, very few realize this simple but magnanimous truth. Power. Ted. Two, just two. Relationship/friendship in My body must increase and isolationism must vanish—be conquered—in My house—among My family. Have I not talked and spoken of this numbers of times with you? Yet it takes so much for people to really be open to newness of Me, especially the religious.

4. They think they know Me, so open to Me they are, only in little measure. They think they have Me figured out and they place Me in their mindset, which Ted, is so small, so tiny, I—Me—The Creator—The Omnipotent, Omniscient God, Most High God, who put the stars in place and created order out of chaos in the universe of universes—Ted, Me, they reduce Me to their level and lower, lower Ted, lower, to make Me fit their mold rather than being open to Me and continuously learning from My hand, My table, My heart, My Spirit, to grow to maturity and become knowledgeable in My kingdom, of My kingdom, and skilled, to operate and conquer foes of My kingdom on earth.

5. Oh what an adventure. But Ted, as you know, adventure alone is not as much fun as adventure with one you love, with ones you love, with ones who hold you dear and intercede for you, as you learn and mature.

6. Ted, Tom Gurney; remember, call to remembrance how much it meant to you for him to walk over to you and pray for you, and your family, your kids, your wife. You cherished it every time, every moment, for you felt his love, his love for you and your family and for Me. You felt his respect for you and you felt his tenderness. That's why you could receive so much from him Ted. That's why you want, even now, to honor and elevate him, because you consistently felt his love, his respect, his blessing, his intercession for you.

7. Ted, relationship, friendship, Ted, that's what I want in My body and I want it to pervade My body and permeate all My body does, all My body is and all My body becomes. My bride must mature.

8. You like the play, The Bride, in Edmond. You awe in it. You love it. It's mighty and its presentation so powerful—how they present My body as a young immature girl with only selfishness coming out of her and how satan comes against her and wars against her. Ted, that story is of Me, that production is of Me, that play is of Me. Ted, take it, take that story and production and puff it over the globe for I will use that yet for mighty communication and purposes in My body. They think it's done and it's hardly begun. And tell them this, tell them to get ready to take it all over everywhere, everywhere I say go. Ted, big. Tell your friends of it. Tell them of the video and audio and help them get the tools of My communication into the hands of My body. Powerful. Powerful. Powerful.

9. Oh Ted, I have so many things like that. They aren't second rate, pitiful, pathetic attempts to communicate My truths and My kingdom, they're powerful, bold, creative, light-full, light-giving, revelatory; and Ted, darkness-crushing, Ted, depression-dissolving, despair-destroying.

10. Ted, I like alliteration, for you like it. I like powerful words and communications of images and portraits of power. I like to paint and I like My people to paint. I want them to paint more on canvas, and in words and digital media of today and the future.

11. Ted, relationships, I want the isolationistic traditions of separation and competition to cease in My kingdom. I call for unilateral, bilateral, mutual, respectful compliments, encouragements, and resources to flow throughout My body, to My body, and Ted, I want it now, now, today.

12. I want the blood to flow freely from My every organ, My every tool, My every person, My every revelation, to My every other organ, tool, person, revelation—for synergy, synergy, synergy of My power and purposes in My people, in the earth, and I want it now.

13. Replace all bickering with skill so that My people won't be little and bicker and tear each other down. That's why so many others pass them and excel and exceed them so easily.

14. Increase the skill of My people in learning how to think of communication and friendship and relationship and reveal revelatory truths to each other with appreciation, tenderness, and touching the heart with love in each other, by each other, to each other, through each other. So I can flow through each one, into each one from the other, and synergy of spirit can come forth and build the networks of relationships that I desire—I designed—I design—I desperately desire to come forth, today, today, today.

15. Compliments, not competition.
Compliments, not competition.
Compliments, not competition.

16. Ted, kind, love-motivated questions to draw out the words that give image to the image I placed in them.

17. Ted, destroy not the dreams and images I am putting in those that seek Me now, for I am doing a new thing and this is part of it—the way I am nurturing My body and calling them to skill in communications, Ted, is Me, of Me, and part of My design for them to walk in the halls of power that I desire.

18. No bickering, no dissent, evaluate yes, challenge yes, questions galore. But Ted, the motive being love, love, love—the drawing out of the imprint of the hand of God—the Father—on that spirit/soul Ted, to free their thinker/mind to walk and flow in relationships of love and power and develop and mature and encourage and be respected rather than stomped and crushed and wounded.

19. Ted, a new day, a new paradigm. The old paradigm is powerless, Ted, virtually powerless to move in the new realm of what is happening and coming about at light speed, light speed. You consider that fast, don't you? So I use 'light speed.'

20. Ted, call My people to relationship with each other as well as Me. For it's not all about Me—I always use and utilize My creation and My imprint, My hand, in them, on them, to walk out My will in relationship. All of these devices Ted, which keep people loners, alone, not in relationship, consuming their hours, Ted, are not of Me. I am relationship of the Most High and I nourish in relationship and I nourish through relationship. And Ted, that's why the powers that be in charge of small groups, churches, organizations, businesses, associations, denominations, and even political parties, must change, change, change their little thinking of how they do what they do, and why they do it.

21. Motive, Ted motive, Ted, motive. I've spoken to you of motive before and its place in position of importance. Ted, motive is significant and those that move in love have one motive; those that move in hate, another. My kingdom and My motives are more powerful than that kingdom and motives of its slaves. I work. I move. I operate on freedom and there is more, much more power in freedom than slavery.

22. Ted, freedom to be, to do, to operate and be yourself, be themselves, in relationship, friendship, not competitiveness, but complementariness. Ted, you elevate others—you win. You open doors for others—you win. Ted, you launch others in their design and destiny and you Ted, win big, big. Rewards are big. I am your reward.

23. Motive not your movements around people for your own purposes, but motive via purity. Motive by means of purity and freedom and compliments and deferring to others and bring out of them what I put in them that the world, and most religious people, want to destroy.

24. I am not religious. I am Freedom, Freedom with a capital F. I am the Most High and I gave freedom and I designed freedom in to all of my lambs. Ted, freedom.

25. Now call My church, call My people, call My earth and freedom and love and honor and respect and tenderness and honor upon honor, to people of all estate, from the lowliest of the low to the estate captains of financial grandeur, Ted, honor, respect, freedom.

26. Now take your message of prayer and freedom and these words of friendship and relationship and respect and honor to all you talk with; non-competitiveness in My kingdom, non-competitiveness in My team. Ted, share, love, celebrate.

27. You must come to Me much to receive the fullness of what I want developed through this. You must write much. You must intercede much for the lambs of your friends, the lambs of My church, the lambs of My kingdom, the lambs, the lambs, the lost sheep of Israel, the lost sheep of every race and creed and sect.

28. You must come more, and more focused must you be to achieve the independence you desire in the freedom you are called to, and awaits you and every man, woman, boy and girl, who will walk your path of seeking correction, discipline and judgment—maturity—that you do—for it is not yours and not of you, it's Mine and it was of Me and is of Me. And tell them, teach and train and proliferate My promulgation of My principles in My kingdom to powerful them, power them, empower My people.

29. Relationships of tenderness, not using people Ted, loving them, encouraging them, setting them free, healing them, healing them, healing them Ted.

30. And Ted, is business different from non-business? Is profit different than non-profit? Is ministry separate from non-ministry in what all I am saying? No Ted, no. No.

31. Now revel in this word I give you and laugh and learn and develop systems and reminders of love and laughter and learning of Me, learning of Me, and each other, in powerful relationships of tenderness and skill.

32. Teach My people to ask questions.
Tell My people I said to ask more questions.
Tell My people I call and I insist for them to become more skilled in communications so they can do what I want done, and diminish and terminate isolationism, isolationism which renders powerful people powerless. Ted, empower the powerful for Me. My people are powerful, powerful, powerful.

33. And Ted, in relationship and fulfillment of friendships of tenderness and freedom and respect, built on motive, foundational motives of love and freedom—great synergy—great power—great and mighty revelation coming forth in voluminous measures to Mine, from Me, in power, doing what I want done, operating in the value system of My kingdom and not of flesh.

34. My design, My way in My power, through people, people of destiny, people of design, people of prayer, people of freedom, friendships, people of many fulfilling friendships—globally—fulfilling My design. Oh Ted, what an adventure when immense immutable unimaginable joy will come forth from the fruit of My spirit in My people in these relationships and friendships and networks that I am calling to start and ignite and flourish, now, today, today, today.

35. Begin. Tell each one to begin today by employing more, giving more kindness and compliments and encouragement to all they meet, ask questions, be interested in My design for those around them, and I will help My design for them be known.

36. Until you're interested in the design of others around you, My design for them, until you recognize, realize and enquire, with skill and love, to those around you, your design will be unclear.

37. Clarify your own calling by revealing and releasing the call on those around you—great freedom, great power, and great rewards will be yours—great clarity, great revelation, great will be your name.

38. Great will be your name reader. Great will be your name hearer. Reader and hearer please read/hear Me now, great will be your name, if you increasingly move, and take steps now, today, to compliment, encourage, and enquire, with questions, in skill, the people around you, in every strata of life, every strata of life, every strata Ted, in respect, in love, caring for those around you, and their dreams and the thoughts that stem from My design on them, in them, through them.

39. Ted, yours will increase, flourish and be empowered and great will be your name. Great will be the name of every reader/hearer who does this, in tenderness, in tenderness, in love, in respect, from the lowliest to the highest. Ted, it's of Me. It's about Me, for I care for people. People. People. My creation. And I call My creation to set free My creation. And oh Ted, such relationships and fulfilling relationships and generational friendships will be birthed and mature.

40. Ted, the children, the lambs, take more serious what I've said about My lambs and those so tender and wobbly and barely walking in My kingdom, and those who know Me not, but are so impressionable, so tender, so young.

41. Ted, take more seriously these words and tell My people to take My words seriously, much more seriously, about My lambs, My lambs, and woo them with love and skill into more knowledge, wisdom, and understanding of Me and who I am and how I operate.

42. Free the design of My hand in My lambs so they won't delay in diversions of mammon, motivated by the values of this world. My design, My values, My Word, My words.

43. Ted, you're doing better, much better in these areas of thinking, dealing, talking with and praying for, the kids of your friends. Now increase, accelerate, and I want you this day to release in My body My anointing to do just this, this as I've described it: relationships and friendships of My body with the kids of My body. Review and study My words to you on this already and build on it and teach it in Russia and Argentina and every place you go.

44. If you put your foot there, you give them My heart on My lambs, in relationship and nurture of My body, with My body, in My hand.

45. Ted, I love you. Promote all those who come to you in sincerity, in humility, promote them, promote them, promote them—not you. I will promote those who promote. I will free those who free. I will touch those who touch. I will laugh with those who laugh. I will network those who network. I will clarify My call and design on those who clarify and compliment and set free My call and My design on others.

46. A new day, a new time, a new paradigm. Poetic, ‘eh? Ted, these are words of power, power, power.

47. You think I have talked with you today about relationships. Ted, I talked with you today about power, power, power. Ted, are you getting it? Are you getting this? I talked with you today about power, not relationship, not relationship, not relationship. Ted, not the micro but the macro. Realize the larger over-arching principles and design I am giving you in My kingdom, for My kingdom-makers, kingdom-comers, kingdom lambs, roaring all the way, in halls of power, in halls of orthodoxy, in halls of healing, in halls of political prowess, and halls of homes, and business, and associations of every imaginable sort.

48. Ted, I bless you. I thank you. I appreciate your willingness and obedience to speak, write what you know are My words to you, My revealings to you, My revelation of My simplest orders. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

49. Your questions for Me I will answer. Organize them and bring them before Me, bring them before Me as you bring the list of names of the kids of your friends before Me, as you bring your values and plans before Me and Ted, I will answer. I will clarify. I will direct. I will bless. I will heal. I will establish. And I will network.

50. I will globalize those who come to Me in knee-ology rather than the-ology. I will develop the heart-ology of My network-ologians [as in the last three syllables of theologian].

51. I will tenderize the tender and touch their lives and circumstances and wounds and past and bring forth My designs for them.

52. I am globalizing My networkable, freedom-makers.
I am Fathering fathers and bringing fathers to the fatherless.
I am readying My bride.
I am maturing My people.

53. Ted, you have yet to taste of the trials and temptations that will yet come to you. You know they’re coming. You know it and you know it because I’m letting you know it, sense it, and Ted, anticipate the surprises so that you’re ready and not caught off guard.

54. You will do much battle to take the ground of the networks you will birth. Delay not in bringing around you those trustable, and implement policies, written policies, to protect you from your enemy the flesh, and the roaring lion who looms as you are waiting.

55. Ask them to help you. Ask. Ask. And ask them to volunteer if they want to be a part of this, even if for only a short season, 3, 6, 9, 12 months. And make sure they know of your love and appreciation if you choose them or you don't. I am bringing others from all parts of My globe and you will set free and they will set free; you will protect and they will protect.

56. Be not afraid or intimidated in the least, at the leadership which stands and walks forward to help you and serve you in the doing of this word. Enjoy, laugh, learn, and be serious when necessary.

57. Teach and train and move now, even now, to establish the school, the schools, the schools of schools in your heart. I will bring those to help you and I will provide for you and I will provide for them. Rushing waters, Ted. Rushing waters.

58. Many compliments. Many networks, Ted, graphic, graphic be, be as Sanders (1) says. Strategic be. Implement all the knowledge and tools you are gaining and employ and make use of all the gifts, talents and knowledge of those I bring you. You will freedomize many in your quest to please Me and love and heal and propel and launch others.

59. I thank you Ted for maturing, maturing in Me, and never ever, never lashing back, in any way, not even in thought, against those that hurt you.

60. Giants I bring you this day, this week, this month, this year. I am speaking to many and giving them creative ideas of how to do what I want done, done by them, in conjunction with you, for you will help birth them and hold on to them not, not in the least, and you will birth forth forms of organizations not seen, for your very purpose is to launch and birth and freedomize and propel in prayer and intimacy and maturity.

61. Ted, humble be as you walk forth in great provision, great provision, great provision. I have been speaking to My body to support you and give of liberal heart to you in connections, relationships, prayer, and finances. I will flourish many in you and to you. Great giants are coming to you to lift you up, to propel My words, to aid and accelerate the establishment of values and systems and details of My networks that I talk with you so often about.

62. Ted, much is on your plate. You can handle it only in rest and peace and not in activity, not in flesh, you must realize this deeply.

63. Now go and grow and laugh and learn and touch all in My name and electrify them with My power, My words, My healing, My new thing that I am doing, calling My bride to intimacy and respect, intimacy and respect,

64. Intimacy with Me and respect for each other.
Intimacy with Me and respect for each other.
Intimacy with Me and respect for each other.

65. Ted, thank you. That union is of Me. Bless them, bless them, bless them and tender be, tender, but meek, and meek is powerful.

66. Study My fruit so I can detail you more about meat.

67. I thank you. I thank you. I thank you.
